

Membership Benefits

- Professional and credible recognition with the only National professional association for those working in the field of Volunteer Management.
- National and international networking opportunities.
- Discount for the *Certified in Volunteer Administration (CVA) credential – an internationally recognized standard in the profession.
- Subscription to the Canadian Journal of Volunteer Resources Management (CJVRM).
- E-Communiqués and e-newsletters that keep members up-to-date on profession related information.
- Discounts for National conferences and educational opportunities.
- National voice at forums and round table discussions.
- Nationally recognized Professional Code of Ethics.
- Access to Members-only section of the website which includes Resource tools, Member Directory, Job Postings and Member's Forum.
- Resources and support for the National Occupational Standards and the Canadian Code for Volunteer Involvement.

*Offered by the Council for Certification in Volunteer Administration cvacert.org

For more information: www.vmpc.ca